PHP Variables and Operations

Question:

Create an HTML page with embedded PHP that:

1. Declares three variables: an integer, a float, and a string.

2. Displays the values and types of these variables on the page.

3. Performs simple arithmetic operations (addition, subtraction, multiplication) on the integer and float and displays the results.